Completed form (signed and dated)
Plans - All plans and drawings to indicate: paper size; key dimensions; scale bar indicating a minimum of 0 - 10 Metres
Location Plan (at a scale of 1:2500 or 1:1250 as may be necessary to fulfil the criterion below). This should show the application site outlined in red, including access to the highway. Any other adjoining land owned or controlled by the applicant should be outlined in blue. Where possible plans should show at least two named roads and surrounding buildings. The properties shown should be numbered or named to ensure the exact location of the application site is clear.
Site/Block plan (at a scale of 1:200 or 1:500). This should accurately show the direction of North and such particulars as are necessary to deal with the matters reserved in the outline planning permission which may include: a) the proposed development in relation to the site boundaries and other existing buildings on the site, with written dimensions including those to the boundaries; b) all the buildings, roads and footpaths on land adjoining the site including access arrangements; c) all public rights of way crossing or adjoining the site; d) the position of all trees on the site, and those on adjacent land that could influence or be affected by the development; e) the extent and type of any hard surfacing; and f) boundary treatment including walls or fencing where this is proposed. g) the use or uses proposed for the development and any distinct development zones within the site should be identified.

Existing and proposed elevations (at a scale of 1:50 or 1:100). As may be necessary to deal with the matters reserved in the outline planning permission. Elevations should be provided of the proposal from all aspects and show clearly the proposed works in relation to what is already there and where possible, the proposed building materials and the style, materials and finish of windows and doors. Blank elevations must also be included; if only to show that this is in fact the case. Where a proposed elevation adjoins another building or is in close proximity, the drawings should clearly show the relationship between the buildings, and detail the positions of the openings on each property. Existing elevations should be shown separately The level of the ground floor and of the site should be shown in relation to the level of the adjoining street.
Existing and proposed floor plans (at a scale of 1:50 or 1:100). As may be necessary to deal with the matters reserved in the outline planning permission. These should show the existing and proposed layout of the building. All floors should be shown separately and indicate clearly the location of the proposed development and the various uses of the floorspace. Where existing and proposed works are shown on the same drawing, new work must be indicated. Where existing buildings or walls are to be demolished these should be clearly shown. New buildings should also be shown in context with adjacent buildings (including property numbers where applicable).
Existing and proposed site sections and finished floor and site levels (at a scale of 1:50 or 1:100) As may be necessary to deal with the matters reserved in the outline planning permission. Such plans should show a cross section(s) through the proposed building(s). In all cases where a proposal involves a change in ground levels, illustrative drawings should be submitted to show both existing and finished levels to include details of foundations and eaves and how encroachment onto adjoining land is to be avoided. Full information should also be submitted to demonstrate how proposed buildings relate to existing site levels and neighbouring development. Such plans should show existing site levels and finished floor levels (with levels related to a fixed datum point off site) and also show the proposals in relation to adjoining buildings. In the case of householder development, the levels may be evident from floor plans and elevations, but particularly in the case of sloping sites it will be necessary to show how proposals relate to existing ground levels or where ground levels outside the extensions would be modified.
